

ANACLETO RAPPING / Los Angeles Times

MUSE SPEAK: Historian Gail Levin, above, sheds light on artist Edward Hopper in her book "Edward Hopper: An Intimate Biography," which draws heavily on the diaries of Hopper's wife, Josephine. Levin will be at LACMA this weekend for a lecture called "Edward Hopper and His Silenced Collaborator." F1

